

FansUnite Entertainment Inc. Announces DTC Eligibility
-Increases Accessibility for US Investors-

Vancouver, British Columbia--(July 7th, 2020) - FansUnite Entertainment Inc. (CSE: FANS) ("FansUnite" or the "Company"), a technology company providing leading online gaming solutions, is pleased to announce it has received approval from the Depository Trust Company ("DTC") to make their shares eligible on the OTC and allowing United States investors to clear their trades seamlessly under the ticker "FUNFF"

In addition to the OTC ticker, the Company will continue to trade on the Canadian Securities Exchange (CSE) under the symbol "FANS".

"Obtaining DTC eligibility simplifies the trading process for both investors and brokerage firms in the United States and demonstrates our commitment to reaching new investors in large markets," said Darius Eghdami, Co-Founder, CEO and Chairman of FansUnite Entertainment. "As our industry experiences significant growth globally, we believe attracting U.S. investors is necessary to enhance liquidity and deepen our visibility on a global scale."

DTC is a subsidiary of the Depository Trust and Clearing Corporation (DTCC), one of the world's largest securities depositories that manages the electronic clearing and settlement of publicly traded companies. FansUnite's securities are now eligible to be electronically cleared and settled which will streamline the process of trading, enhance liquidity, and provide direct access to investors in the US OTC capital markets.
